TO: DREAM UNLIMITED CORP.

AND TO: COMPUTERSHARE TRUST COMPANY OF CANADA, as Depositary

The undersigned delivers to Dream the enclosed certificate(s) for Shares and, subject only to the provisions of the Offer to Purchase regarding withdrawal, irrevocably accepts the Offer for such Shares upon the terms and conditions contained in the Offer and Circular. The following are the details of the enclosed certificate(s):

BOX 1
DESCRIPTION OF SHARES TENDERED (See Instructions 8 and 12)
Certificate Number(s) (if Available)	Name(s) in which Certificate is Registered	Number of Shares Represented by Certificate	Number of Shares Tendered*
TOTAL:
<small>* Unless otherwise indicated, the number of Shares evidenced by all certificates referenced above will be deemed to have been tendered. If you wish to tender fewer than all of the Shares evidenced by all certificates listed above, indicate in the fourth column the number of Shares you wish to tender. See Instruction 8 of the Letter of Transmittal.</small>

The undersigned acknowledges receipt of the Offer and Circular and acknowledges that there will be a binding agreement between the undersigned and Dream, effective as of the time at which Dream takes up Shares tendered by the undersigned pursuant to this Letter of Transmittal, upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offer and Circular.

IN CONSIDERATION OF THE OFFER AND FOR VALUE RECEIVED, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer and Circular, subject only to the withdrawal rights set out in Section 4 of the Offer to Purchase entitled "Withdrawal Rights", the undersigned irrevocably accepts the Offer for and in respect of the tendered Shares and (unless transfer is made pursuant to the procedure for book-entry transfer set forth in Section 3 of the Offer to Purchase entitled "Procedure for Tendering Shares") delivers to Dream the enclosed certificate(s) representing the tendered Shares, in accordance with the terms of the Offer.

Subject to and effective upon acceptance for purchase of the Shares tendered hereby, in accordance with the terms of the Offer, the undersigned hereby sells, assigns and transfers to or upon the order of Dream all rights, title and interest in and to all Shares tendered hereby and all rights and benefits arising from the tendered Shares and any and all dividends, payments, securities, rights, assets or other interests that may be declared, paid, accrued, issued, distributed, made or transferred on or in respect of the tendered Shares or any of them on and after the date upon which Dream takes up the Shares covered by this Letter of Transmittal (collectively, "Distributions"). Shares acquired pursuant to the Offer will be acquired by Dream free and clear of all hypothecs, liens, charges, encumbrances, security interests, claims, restrictions and equities whatsoever, together with all rights and benefits arising therefrom, provided that any dividends which may be declared, paid, issued, distributed, made or transferred on or in respect of such Shares to Shareholders of record on or prior to the date upon which the Shares are taken up under the Offer will be for the account of such Shareholders. Each Shareholder of record on that date will be entitled to receive that dividend, whether or not such Shareholder tenders Shares pursuant to the Offer.

The undersigned irrevocably constitutes and appoints, effective on and after the Expiration Time, each officer and director of Dream, and any other person designated by Dream in writing, as the true and lawful agent, attorney, attorney-in-fact and proxy of the holder of the tendered Shares covered by this Letter of Transmittal (which tendered Shares to the extent taken up and paid for, together with any Distributions thereon, are hereinafter referred to as the “Purchased Securities”) with respect to such Purchased Securities, with full power of substitution in the name and on behalf of such Shareholder (such power of attorney being an irrevocable power coupled with an interest):

- (a) to deliver certificates for such Purchased Securities, together with all accompanying evidences of transfer and authenticity, to or to the order of Dream received by the Depository, as the undersigned’s agent of the Purchase Price, and to register or record the transfer of such Purchased Securities to the extent consisting of securities on the appropriate securities register(s) of Dream;
- (b) to present certificates for such Purchased Securities to the extent consisting of securities for cancellation and transfer on the applicable securities register(s) of Dream for such securities; and
- (c) receive all benefits and otherwise exercise all rights of beneficial ownership of such Shares, subject to the next paragraph, all in accordance with the terms of the Offer.

The undersigned or the person on whose behalf a book-entry transfer is made represents and warrants that: (a) the undersigned has received the Offer and Circular; (b) the undersigned has full power and authority to tender, sell, assign and transfer the Shares tendered to the Offer and all rights and benefits arising from such tendered Shares, including, without limitation, any and all Distributions; (c) the undersigned or the person on whose behalf a book-entry transfer is made has good title to and is the beneficial owner of the tendered Shares and any Distributions tendered under the Offer; (d) the tendered Shares and Distributions have not been sold, assigned or transferred, nor has any agreement been entered into to sell, assign or transfer any of the tendered Shares or Distributions to any other person; (e) the deposit of the tendered Shares and Distributions complies with applicable securities laws; and (f) when and to the extent the tendered Shares and Distributions are taken up and paid for by Dream, Dream will acquire good title thereto, free and clear of all hypothecs, liens, charges, encumbrances, security interests, claims, restrictions and equities whatsoever, together with all rights and benefits arising therefrom.

The name(s) of the registered owner(s) of the tendered Shares is required to be printed exactly as it appears on the certificates representing Shares tendered hereby. The certificates representing Shares tendered and the number of Shares that the undersigned wishes to tender should all be indicated in Box 1 of this Letter of Transmittal.

The undersigned understands that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offer (including the proration provisions described in the Offer), all Shares properly tendered and not properly withdrawn will be purchased at the Purchase Price per Share, payable in cash (subject to applicable withholding taxes, if any), for all Shares purchased. Certificates for all Shares not purchased under the Offer (including Shares not purchased because of proration), or properly withdrawn, will be returned (in the case of certificates representing Shares all of which are not purchased) or replaced with new certificates representing the balance of Shares not purchased (in the case of certificates representing Shares of which less than all are purchased), promptly after the Expiration Time or the date of withdrawal of the Shares, without expense to the Shareholder.

The undersigned understands that if the number of Shares properly tendered and not properly withdrawn pursuant to the Offer is greater than 10,000,000, such tendered Shares will be purchased on a pro rata basis according to the number of Shares tendered or deemed to be tendered by the tendering Shareholders (with adjustments to avoid the purchase of fractional Shares), except that Odd Lot tenders will be accepted for purchase first and will not be subject to proration. See Section 2 of the Offer to Purchase, “Number of Shares; Proration”. Dream’s determination as to proration shall be final and binding on all parties, except as otherwise finally determined in a subsequent judicial proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction or as required by law.

The undersigned recognizes that under certain circumstances set forth in the Offer and Circular, Dream may terminate or amend the Offer or may not be required to purchase any of the Shares tendered hereby or may accept for payment, in accordance with the applicable proration provisions relating to Shares tendered, fewer than all of the Shares tendered hereby. The undersigned understands and acknowledges that certificate(s) for any Shares not tendered or not purchased will be returned to the undersigned at the address indicated on record, unless otherwise indicated in Box B, “Entitlement Delivery”.

The undersigned understands that the Purchase Price payable by Dream, and thus the amount owing to any depositing Shareholder, is stated and will be paid in Canadian dollars, and net of any applicable withholding taxes. Shares taken up and paid for by Dream will be promptly cancelled by Dream.

The undersigned understands and acknowledges that each of Dream and the Depositary, as applicable, shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any payment to any Shareholder pursuant to the Offer such amount as it is required to deduct or withhold from such payment under the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the “Tax Act”), or any provision of any applicable federal, provincial, territorial, state, local or foreign tax law, and remit such deduction or withholding amount to the appropriate government entity. To the extent that amounts are deducted or withheld, such deducted or withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of the Offer as having been paid to the Shareholder to whom such amounts would otherwise have been paid, provided that such deducted or withheld amounts are actually remitted to the appropriate government entity.

Cash amounts are denominated in Canadian dollars. However, a registered Shareholder can elect to use the Depositary’s currency exchange services to convert such payment into U.S. dollars by checking the appropriate box in Box D, “Currency of Payment”, in which case such Shareholder will have acknowledged and agreed that the exchange rate for one Canadian dollar expressed in U.S. dollars will be based on the prevailing market rate(s) available to the Depositary on the date of the currency conversion. All risks associated with the currency conversion from Canadian dollars to U.S. dollars, including risks relating to change in rates, the timing of exchange or the selection of a rate for exchange, and all costs incurred with the currency conversion are for the Shareholder’s sole account and will be at such Shareholder’s sole risk and expense, and neither Computershare nor Dream are responsible for any such matters.

The undersigned understands that payment for Shares accepted for purchase, and not withdrawn, pursuant to the Offer will be made by depositing the aggregate Purchase Price for such Shares with the Depositary by bank transfer or other means satisfactory to the Depositary, who will act as agent for the depositing Shareholders for the purpose of receiving payment from Dream and transmitting such payment to the depositing Shareholders (less any applicable withholding taxes). The undersigned understands and acknowledges that receipt of payment by the Depositary will be deemed to constitute receipt of payment by persons depositing Shares. Under no circumstances will interest accrue or be paid by Dream to persons depositing Shares, including persons using the guaranteed delivery procedures, regardless of any delay in paying for any Shares.

The Depositary will forward cheques or electronic payment representing the cash payment for a Shareholder’s Shares (less any applicable withholding taxes) taken up under the Offer and certificates representing all Shares not purchased by first-class mail, postage pre-paid, to the undersigned or to such other person or such other address as identified by the undersigned by properly completing Box B, “Entitlement Delivery”. Cheques or electronic payments, mailed or transmitted in accordance with this paragraph will be deemed to have been delivered at the time of mailing, or transmission.

The undersigned accepts the Offer under the terms of the Offer and Circular and this Letter of Transmittal (including book-entry transfer) and revokes any and all other authority, whether as agent, attorney-in-fact, attorney, proxy or otherwise, previously conferred or agreed to be conferred by such depositing Shareholder at any time with respect to the tendered Shares or any Distributions. The undersigned agrees that no subsequent authority, whether as agent, attorney-in-fact, attorney, proxy or otherwise will be granted with respect to the tendered Shares or any Distributions by or on behalf of the depositing Shareholder unless and to the extent the tendered Shares are not taken up and paid for under the Offer or are withdrawn in accordance with Section 4 of the Offer to Purchase entitled “Withdrawal Rights”.

The undersigned agrees not to vote any of the tendered Shares taken up and paid for under the Offer, or Distributions on such Shares consisting of securities, at any meeting and not to exercise any of the other rights or privileges attaching to any of such tendered Shares or Distributions consisting of securities, or otherwise act with respect thereto. The undersigned agrees further to execute and deliver to Dream, provided not contrary to any applicable law, at any time and from time to time, as and when requested by, and at the expense of Dream, any and all instruments of proxy, authorization or consent, in form and on terms satisfactory to Dream, in respect of any such tendered Shares or Distributions consisting of securities. The undersigned agrees further to designate in any such instruments of proxy the person or persons specified by Dream as the proxyholder of the undersigned in respect of such tendered Shares or Distributions consisting of securities.

The undersigned covenants to execute, upon request of Dream, any additional documents determined by the Depositary or Dream to be necessary or desirable to complete the sale, assignment and transfer of the tendered Shares, all in accordance with the terms of the Offer and acknowledges that all authority herein conferred or agreed to be conferred may be exercised during any subsequent legal incapacity of the undersigned and shall, to the extent permitted by law, survive the death or incapacity, bankruptcy or insolvency of the undersigned and all obligations of the undersigned herein shall be binding upon the successors, assigns, heirs, personal representatives, executors, administrators and other legal representatives of the undersigned.

If you are a Shareholder of record and you tender your Shares directly to the Depositary, you will not be obligated to pay any brokerage fees or commissions. If you hold your Shares through an investment dealer, stock broker, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee, you should consult with such person regarding whether transaction costs will apply.

INSTRUCTIONS

FORMING PART OF THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE OFFER

1. Use of Letter of Transmittal

- (a) This Letter of Transmittal, properly completed and duly executed with the signatures guaranteed if required in accordance with Instruction 4 below, together with the accompanying certificate(s) representing the tendered Shares (or, alternatively, book-entry confirmation with respect thereto) and all other documents required by the terms of the Offer and Circular and this Letter of Transmittal must be received by the Depository at its office address set forth on the back cover page of this Letter of Transmittal prior to the Expiration Time, unless the Offer is extended or withdrawn or unless the procedure for guaranteed delivery set forth in Section 3 of the Offer to Purchase entitled “Procedure for Tendering Shares – Guaranteed Delivery” is used. See Instruction 2 below.
- (b) The method of delivery of certificates representing Shares and all other required documents is at the option and sole risk of the tendering Shareholder. If certificates representing Shares are to be sent by mail, registered mail that is properly insured is recommended and it is suggested that the mailing be made sufficiently in advance of the Expiration Time to permit delivery to the Depository prior to such time. Delivery of a certificate representing Shares will be deemed to occur only upon actual receipt by the Depository of such certificate.
- (c) Shareholders whose Shares are registered in the name of an investment dealer, bank, trust company or other intermediary should immediately contact that intermediary for assistance if they wish to accept the Offer in order to take the necessary steps to be able to deposit such Shares under the Offer. Intermediaries likely have established tendering cut-off times that are up to 48 hours prior to the Expiration Time. Shareholders must instruct their brokers or other intermediaries promptly if they wish to tender.

2. Procedure for Guaranteed Delivery

If a Shareholder wishes to tender Shares pursuant to the Offer and cannot deliver certificates for such Shares, or the book-entry transfer procedures described in the Offer and Circular cannot be completed prior to the Expiration Time, or time will not permit all required documents to reach the Depository prior to the Expiration Time, such Shares may nevertheless be deposited if all the following conditions are met:

- (a) such tender is made by or through an Eligible Institution (as defined below);
- (b) a properly completed and duly executed Notice of Guaranteed Delivery in the form provided by Dream with this Offer to Purchase, including (where required) a signature guarantee by an Eligible Institution in the form set forth in the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery is received by the Depository prior to the Expiration Time; and
- (c) the certificates for all tendered Shares in proper form for transfer (or confirmation of book-entry transfer), together with a properly completed and duly executed Letter of Transmittal (or a manually executed photocopy thereof), or a Book-Entry Confirmation in lieu thereof in the case of a book-entry transfer relating to such Shares, with signatures that are guaranteed if so required in accordance with the Letter of Transmittal, and any other documents required by the Letter of Transmittal, are received by the Depository, before 5:00 p.m. (Eastern time) on or before the second Trading Day on the TSX after the Expiration Time.

The Notice of Guaranteed Delivery may be delivered by hand, courier or mail or transmitted by e-mail transmission to the office of the Depository, as set out in this Letter of Transmittal and the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, and must include a guarantee by an Eligible Institution in the form set forth in the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery. Delivery of the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery and this Letter of Transmittal and accompanying certificate(s) representing Shares and all other required documents to any office other than as specified in this Letter of Transmittal and the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, as applicable, does not constitute delivery for purposes of satisfying a guaranteed delivery. The tender information specified in a Notice of Guaranteed Delivery will, in all circumstances, take precedence over any inconsistent tender information that is specified in the related Letter of Transmittal that is subsequently deposited.

An “Eligible Institution” means a Canadian Schedule I chartered bank, a major trust company in Canada, a member of the Securities Transfer Agents Medallion Program (STAMP), a member of the Stock Exchange Medallion Program (SEMP) or a member of the New York Stock Exchange Inc. Medallion Signature Program (MSP). Members of these programs are usually members of a recognized stock exchange in Canada or the United States, members of the Investment Dealers Association of Canada, members of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority or a bank or trust company in the United States.

3. Signatures

This Letter of Transmittal must be completed and executed by the Shareholder accepting the Offer described above or by such holder’s duly authorized representative in accordance with Instruction 6.

- (a) If this Letter of Transmittal is signed by the registered owner(s) of the accompanying certificate(s), such signature(s) on this Letter of Transmittal must correspond exactly with the name(s) as registered or as written on the face of such certificate(s) without any change whatsoever, and the certificate(s) need not be endorsed. If such deposited certificate(s) is owned of record by two or more joint holders, all such holders must sign this Letter of Transmittal.
- (b) Notwithstanding Instruction 3(a), if this Letter of Transmittal is executed by a person other than the registered owner (s) of the certificate(s) deposited herewith, or if the cheque(s) or funds are to be issued or delivered to a person other than the Registered Shareholder(s), or if the certificate(s) representing Shares in respect of which the Offer is not being accepted are to be returned to a person other than such Registered Shareholder(s) or sent to an address other than the address of the Registered Shareholder(s) shown on the register(s) of Shareholders maintained by or on behalf of Dream:
  - (i) the accompanying certificate(s) must be endorsed or be accompanied by an appropriate transfer power of attorney, in either case, duly and properly completed by the registered owner(s); and
  - (ii) the signature on the endorsement panel of the certificate(s) or transfer power of attorney must correspond exactly to the name(s) of the registered owner(s) as registered or as written on the face of the certificate(s) and must be guaranteed by an Eligible Institution, as noted in Instruction 4 below.

4. Guarantee of Signatures

No signature guarantee is required on this Letter of Transmittal if either:

- (a) this Letter of Transmittal is signed by the Registered Shareholder(s) exactly as the name(s) of the Registered Shareholder(s) appears on the Share certificate(s) deposited with this Letter of Transmittal and payment and delivery is to be made directly to such Registered Shareholder(s) at the address shown on the register(s) of Shareholders maintained by or on behalf of Dream; or
- (b) such Shares are deposited by an Eligible Institution.

In all other cases, an Eligible Institution must guarantee all signatures on this Letter of Transmittal by completing Box I, “Guarantee of Signature(s)”. See Instruction 3.

5. Odd Lots

As described in Section 2 of the Offer to Purchase entitled “Number of Shares; Proration”, if Dream purchases any Shares, the Shares purchased first will consist of all Shares so tendered by any Shareholder who will own beneficially, at the Expiration Time, an aggregate of fewer than 100 Shares and who tenders all of his or her Shares. This preference will not be available unless Box A, “Odd Lots” is completed. Furthermore, partial tenders will not qualify for this preference and this preference is not available to holders of 100 or more Shares even if holders have separate certificates for fewer than 100 Shares or hold fewer than 100 Shares in different accounts.

6. Fiduciaries, Representatives and Authorizations

Where this Letter of Transmittal is executed by a person on behalf of an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or on behalf of a corporation, partnership or association or is executed by any other person acting in a representative capacity, such person should so indicate when signing and this Letter of Transmittal must be accompanied by satisfactory evidence of the authority to act. Either Dream or the Depository, in its sole discretion, may require additional evidence of authority or additional documentation.

7. Delivery Instructions

The signatory of this Letter of Transmittal must identify to whom a cheque, electronic payment and/or certificates should be issued by completing Box B, “Entitlement Delivery”. Such cheque, electronic payment and/or certificates will be sent to the address indicated in Box C unless a cheque evidencing payment for Shares tendered is to be held by the Depository for pick-up by the undersigned or any person designated by the undersigned in writing, in which case Box B on this Letter of Transmittal must be completed.

8. Partial Tenders

If fewer than all of the Shares evidenced by any certificate are to be deposited, fill in the number of Shares which are to be deposited in the column entitled “Number of Shares Tendered” in Box 1. In such case, if any tendered Shares are purchased, a new certificate for the remainder of the Shares evidenced by the old certificate(s) will be issued and sent to the registered holder, unless otherwise specified in Box B, “Entitlement Delivery” on this Letter of Transmittal, as soon as practicable after the Expiration Time. All Shares represented by the certificate(s) listed and delivered to the Depository are deemed to have been tendered unless otherwise indicated. Note that this Instruction is not applicable to Shareholders who deposit their Shares by book-entry transfer.

9. Tax Residency – Canadian Withholding Tax

Canadian Resident Shareholders

To ensure that non-resident withholding tax is not withheld in respect of the Purchase Price for tendered Shares beneficially owned by a person resident in Canada for purposes of the Tax Act (a “Canadian Resident Beneficial Owner”), the Shareholder must certify in Section I of Box E that the Canadian Resident Beneficial Owner is a resident of Canada (or, if a partnership, a “Canadian partnership”) for purposes of the Tax Act. Canadian Resident Beneficial Owners and Shareholders holding tendered Shares on behalf of a Canadian Resident Beneficial Owner are only required to complete Section I of Box E.

Shareholders Not Resident in Canada

Non-resident withholding tax may apply in respect of the Purchase Price for Shares beneficially owned by a person who is not resident in Canada for purposes of the Tax Act (a “Non-Resident Beneficial Owner”). Non-Resident Beneficial Owners and Shareholders holding Shares on behalf of a Non-Resident Beneficial Owner are required to complete Sections I and II of Box E.

Non-resident withholding tax will generally apply at a rate of 25% to certain amounts paid or deemed to be paid (including a deemed dividend arising under the Offer) in respect of Shares beneficially owned by persons not resident in Canada for purposes of the Tax Act, unless a tax treaty is applicable to reduce the withholding tax rate. Non-Resident Beneficial Owners will be subject to withholding tax at 25% on any deemed dividend unless the information indicated in Section II of Box E is properly completed and provided along with this Letter of Transmittal.

If the Shareholder is the Beneficial Owner of the tendered Shares, the Shareholder must complete and provide, along with this Letter of Transmittal, CRA Form NR 301 (or, in the case of a partnership or hybrid entity, CRA Form NR 302 or NR 303, as applicable) in order to claim the benefits under a tax treaty.

If the Shareholder is not the Beneficial Owner of the tendered Shares, the Shareholder must obtain from each Beneficial Owner wishing to claim the benefits under a tax treaty a completed CRA Form NR 301 (or, in the case of a partnership or hybrid entity, CRA Form NR 302 or NR 303, as applicable).

Shareholders who do not properly complete and provide, along with this Letter of Transmittal, Form NR 301 (or, in the case of a partnership or hybrid entity, Form NR 302 or NR 303, as applicable) will be assumed to be subject to 25% non-resident withholding tax rate on any deemed dividends arising under the Offer.

10. U.S. Tax Information for U.S. Shareholders

To prevent backup withholding on any payment made to a U.S. Shareholder (or person acting on behalf of a U.S. Shareholder) with respect to Shares tendered pursuant to the Offer, you are required, if you are a U.S. Person for Tax Purposes (as defined below), to notify us of your current U.S. taxpayer identification number, “TIN,” (or the TIN of the person on whose behalf you are acting) and certify, under penalties of perjury, that such TIN is correct, that you are not subject to backup withholding and that you are a U.S. Person for Tax Purposes, by properly completing and executing the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) Form W-9 (which is provided below) as described more fully below. The TIN is generally the U.S. Social Security number or the U.S. federal employer identification number of the U.S. Person for Tax Purposes. The U.S. Person for Tax Purposes is required to furnish the TIN of the registered owner of the Shares. The instructions on pages 3 and 5 of the IRS Form W-9 explain the proper certification to use if the Shares are registered in more than one name or are not registered in the name of the actual owner.

If you are a U.S. Shareholder that is not a U.S. Person for Tax Purposes, you may be subject to backup withholding on payments received pursuant to the Offer unless you furnish the appropriate, properly completed and executed IRS Form W-8, which may be obtained at the IRS website (www.irs.gov).

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Amounts withheld are creditable against the U.S. Shareholder’s regular U.S. federal income tax liability, and any amount over-withheld generally will be refundable to the U.S. Shareholder, in each case, if the U.S. Shareholder properly files a U.S. federal income tax return in a timely manner.

You are a “U.S. Person for Tax Purposes” if you are, for U.S. federal income tax purposes: (1) a citizen or a resident of the United States (including a U.S. resident alien); (2) a partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States (or any state thereof, including the District of Columbia); (3) an estate whose income is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source, or (4) a trust if a U.S. court can exercise primary supervision over the trust’s administration and one or more U.S. persons are authorized to control all substantial decisions of the trust (or certain other electing trusts).

Certain U.S. Persons for Tax Purposes (including certain corporations) are exempt from backup withholding and reporting requirements. Such exempt holders should indicate their exempt status by entering in the correct “Exempt payee code” on line 4 in IRS Form W-9. See the instructions beginning on page 3 of the Form W-9 for additional instructions. Each U.S. Shareholder is urged to consult his or her own tax advisor to determine whether, in connection with the Offer, such holder is exempt from backup withholding and information reporting.

Failure to provide the required information on the IRS Form W-9 or to provide an IRS Form W-8, as applicable, may subject the U.S. Shareholder to penalties imposed by the IRS and backup withholding of all or a portion of any payment received pursuant to the Offer. Serious penalties may be imposed for providing false information which, if wilfully done, may result in fines and/or imprisonment.

Please note that the foregoing certifications do not exempt any holder from any compensation-related or other withholding that may be required. Payments made pursuant to the Offer that are treated as wages will be subject to all applicable wage withholding, regardless of whether an IRS Form W-9 or applicable IRS Form W-8 is provided.

Taxes withheld from the consideration paid pursuant to the Offer will be treated for all purposes as having been paid to the persons with respect to whom such amounts were withheld.

The information provided herein and in Section 9 of the Circular does not constitute a full discussion of the U.S. tax considerations applicable to the Offer. All Shareholders are urged to consult their tax advisor regarding the U.S. tax considerations relevant to them in their particular circumstances.

Failure to furnish TIN — If you fail to furnish your correct TIN, you are subject to a penalty of U.S.$50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect. More serious penalties may be imposed for providing false information which, if willfully done, may result in fines and/or imprisonment.

ANY U.S. SHAREHOLDER WHO IS A U.S. PERSON FOR TAX PURPOSES AND WHO FAILS TO PROPERLY COMPLETE THE FORM W-9 SET OUT IN THIS FORM, AND ANY U.S. SHAREHOLDER WHO IS NOT A U.S. PERSON FOR TAX PURPOSES AND WHO FAILS TO PROPERLY COMPLETE THE APPROPRIATE FORM W-8, MAY BE SUBJECT TO BACKUP WITHHOLDING AT THE APPLICABLE STATUTORY RATE (CURRENTLY 24%) WITH RESPECT TO ALL OR A PORTION OF PAYMENTS MADE TO SUCH HOLDER PURSUANT TO THE OFFER AND MAY BE SUBJECT TO PENALTIES.

11. Currency of Payment

All cash payments under the Offer will be paid in Canadian dollars. However, Shareholders can elect to receive payment in U.S. dollars by checking the appropriate box in Box D, “Currency of Payment”, in which case such Shareholder will have acknowledged and agreed that: (a) the exchange rate for one Canadian dollar expressed in U.S. dollars will be based on the exchange rate available to the Depository at its typical banking institution on the date the funds are converted; (b) the risk of any fluctuation in such rate will be borne by the undersigned; and (c) Computershare may earn a commercially reasonable spread between its exchange rate and the rate used by any counterparty from which it purchases the elected currency.

12. Miscellaneous

- (a) If the spaces provided in Box 1 of this Letter of Transmittal relating to the number and description of tendered Shares are insufficient to list all certificates for tendered Shares, the certificate number and/or the number of tendered Shares should be listed on a separate signed schedule and attached to this Letter of Transmittal.
- (b) If tendered Shares are registered in different forms (e.g. “John Doe” and “J. Doe”), a separate Letter of Transmittal should be signed for each different registration. No alternative, conditional or contingent deposits will be accepted. All depositing Shareholders by execution of this Letter of Transmittal waive any right to receive any notice of the acceptance of tendered Shares for payment, except as required by applicable laws.
- (c) The Offer and all contracts resulting from the acceptance thereof shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein. Each party to any agreement resulting from the acceptance of the Offer unconditionally and irrevocably attorns to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario and all courts competent to hear appeals therefrom.
- (d) Registered holders of Shares who tender their Shares directly to the Depository will not be obligated to pay any brokerage fees or commissions. Non-registered Shareholders who hold their Shares through an investment dealer, stock broker, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee should consult with such person regarding whether fees or commissions will apply in connection with a tender of Shares pursuant to the Offer.
- (e) All questions as to the number of Shares to be accepted and taken up, the form of documents and the validity, eligibility (including time of receipt) and acceptance for payment of any tender of Shares, will be determined by Dream, in its sole discretion, which determination shall be final and binding on all parties. Dream reserves the absolute right to reject any or all tenders of Shares judged by it not to be in proper form or not completed in accordance with the instructions herein and in the Offer or which, in the opinion of its counsel, may be unlawful for it to accept under the laws of any jurisdiction. Dream also reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions of the Offer or any defect or irregularity in any deposit of Shares. Unless waived, any defects or irregularities in tenders must be cured within such time as Dream shall determine. No deposit of Shares will be deemed to be validly made until all defects and irregularities have been cured or waived. None of Dream, the Depositary, or any other person will be under any duty to give notification of any defect or irregularity in deposits or incur any liability for failure to give any such notice. Dream's interpretation of the terms and conditions of the Offer, the Offer and Circular, this Letter of Transmittal and the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery will be final and binding.

- (f) Additional copies of the Offer and Circular, this Letter of Transmittal and the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery may be obtained without charge on request from the Depositary at its address provided on the back cover page of this Letter of Transmittal.
- (g) Dream will not purchase any fractional Shares, nor will it accept any alternative, conditional or contingent deposits except as specifically permitted by the Offer to Purchase. All depositing Shareholders, by execution of this Letter of Transmittal (or a manually executed photocopy of it) and delivery of it in the matter prescribed herein, waive any right to receive any notice of the acceptance of their deposit.

13. Lost Certificates

If a certificate has been lost, destroyed, mutilated or misplaced, this Letter of Transmittal should be completed as fully as possible and forwarded together with a letter describing the loss, destruction, mutilation or misplacement (and the certificate representing the Shares in the case of mutilated certificates) to the Depositary. The Depositary will respond with the replacement requirements, which includes certain additional documents that must be signed in order to obtain replacement certificate(s) and the payment of the required lost certificate fee. If a certificate has been lost, destroyed, mutilated or misplaced, the foregoing action must be taken sufficiently in advance of the Expiration Time in order to obtain a replacement certificate in sufficient time to permit the Shares represented by the replacement certificate to be deposited to the Offer prior to the Expiration Time.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and

For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. ### Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States.

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items.

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 24% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships, earlier.

What is FATCA Reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C corporation, or S corporation. Enter the entity’s name as shown on the entity’s tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a “disregarded entity.” See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner’s name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner’s name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity’s name on line 2, “Business name/disregarded entity name.” If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box on line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box on line 3.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

Note: You may wish to consult with the financial institution requesting this form to determine whether the FATCA code and/or exempt payee code should be completed.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requester already has on file, write NEW at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.SSA.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/Businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. Go to www.irs.gov/Forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or SS-4 mailed to you within 10 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983.

You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983.

You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions.

You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABLE accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Pub. 5027, Identity Theft Information for Taxpayers.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a systemic problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at spam@uce.gov or report them at www.ftc.gov/complaint. You can contact the FTC at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 877-IDTHEFT (877-438-4338). If you have been the victim of identity theft, see www.IdentityTheft.gov and Pub. 5027.

Visit www.irs.gov/IdentityTheft to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.

Declaration of eligibility for benefits (reduced tax) under a tax treaty for a non-resident person

(NOTE: Partnerships should use Form NR302 and hybrid entities should use Form NR303)

Use this form if you are a non-resident taxpayer resident in a country that Canada has a tax treaty with and you are eligible to receive the reduced rate of tax or exemption provided by the treaty on all or certain income and you:

Do not use this form:

- to support exemptions from tax under Article XXI of the Canada-U.S. tax treaty. You must apply to the CRA for a Letter of Exemption. Refer to guide T4016, Exempt U.S. Organizations – Under Article XXI of the Canada-United States Tax Convention.
- to support exemptions under a tax treaty that does not tax pension income if the total amount received from all payers is less than a certain threshold amount, or in other situations where Form NR5, Application by a non-resident of Canada for a reduction in the amount of non-resident tax required to be withheld, is applicable. See guide T4061, NR4 – Non-resident tax withholding, remitting, and reporting for more information on pension exemptions. In these cases, you have to file Form NR5 to receive a letter authorizing a reduction in withholding tax on pension income.
- to support exemptions from Part XIII withholding tax that are provided for in the Income Tax Act, such as fully exempt interest as defined in subsection 212(3); to support arm's length interest payments that are not captured by paragraph 212(1)(b); or to support reductions of the Part XIII withholding tax on rental income when the non-resident makes an election under Section 216. In these circumstances, the exemption or reduction is in the Income Tax Act rather than in one of Canada's tax treaties.

Business profits and disposition gains

For exemptions pertaining to services provided in Canada, including those provided by artists and athletes who are exempt from tax under a tax treaty, see Rendering services in Canada at cra.gc.ca/tx/nnrstdnts/cmmn/rndr/menu-eng.html or Film Advisory Services at cra.gc.ca/tx/nnrstdnts/flm/menu-eng.html. These pages contain links to information for non-residents, including how to apply for a waiver of withholding tax. You may need to attach Form NR302, Declaration of eligibility for benefits (reduced tax) under a tax treaty for a partnership with non-resident partners or NR303, Declaration of eligibility for benefits (reduced tax) under a tax treaty for a hybrid entity to an application for a waiver in certain circumstances, such as when the applicant for the waiver is a partnership or hybrid entity. The payer of income for services provided in Canada must withhold tax on these payments unless the non-resident provides the payer with a copy of a tax waiver or reduction issued by the CRA for those services.

For exemptions pertaining to dispositions of taxable Canadian property, see Disposing of or acquiring certain Canadian property at cra.gc.ca/nrdispositions/. Vendors and purchasers will find information on filing forms T2062, T2062A, and T2062C on this page. Generally, the purchaser of taxable Canadian property has to withhold tax on the purchase price unless the vendor receives a certificate of compliance from the CRA, or other rules apply.

Information and instructions for the non-resident taxpayer

Part XIII tax

Part XIII tax is a withholding tax imposed on certain amounts paid or credited to non-residents of Canada. Subject to certain exceptions specified in the law, the rate of Part XIII tax is generally 25%. However, an income tax treaty between Canada and another country may provide for complete exemption from Part XIII tax or may reduce its rate.

It is the payer's responsibility to withhold and remit Part XIII tax at the appropriate rate and the payer is liable for any deficiency. For this reason, the payer may request a completed Form NR301 or equivalent information before applying a reduced rate of withholding tax. Without Form NR301, the payer may not be satisfied of your entitlement to treaty benefits for the application of less than the full 25% Part XIII tax rate.

Foreign tax identification number

Enter the tax identification number that you use, if you have one, in your country of residence. For individuals who are resident in the United States, this is your social security number.

Recipient type

Tick the appropriate type of non-resident taxpayer.

A foreign partnership that is treated as fiscally transparent under the laws of a foreign country, resulting in the partners paying tax on the partnership's worldwide income, should use Form NR302 to claim treaty benefits the partners are entitled to.

Hybrid entities (see "Amounts derived through hybrid entities" below) should use Form NR303 if they are considered "fiscally transparent" by a country that Canada has a tax treaty with and that treaty contemplates extending treaty benefits for income derived through the entity to the residents of that country who have an interest in the entity (e.g., see paragraph 6 of Article IV of the Canada-U.S. tax treaty). A foreign entity that is taxed as a corporation on its worldwide income under the laws of the foreign country completes Form NR301.

For other entity types, such as government entities and professional unincorporated associations, go to the CRA website at cra.gc.ca/formspubs/frms/nr301-2-3-eng.html.

Canadian tax number

Provide a Canadian tax number, if you have one.

Country of residence

Indicate your country of residence. You must be a resident of the country as defined in the tax treaty between Canada and that country. For more information, consult the publication Income Tax Technical News No. 35 at cra-arc.gc.ca/E/pub/tp/itnews-35/, published February 26, 2007.

Type of income

Enter the types of income being paid for which you are eligible for tax treaty benefits (such as an exemption from tax in Canada or a reduced withholding tax rate).

Note: Income, including interest and dividend income, paid by a trust (other than a deemed dividend paid by a SIFT trust to which subsection 104(16) applies) to a non-resident is considered "trust income" under the Income Tax Act and Canada's tax treaties.

Some tax treaties only reduce the Part XIII withholding tax on specific income types, such as interest or trust income, if the amount is taxable in the non-resident taxpayer's country of residence. To check if this applies to the income you receive, go to the Department of Finance website at fin.gc.ca/treaties-conventions/treatystatus\_-eng.asp, or try the non-resident tax calculator at cra.gc.ca/partxiii-calculator/. For example, the Canada-United Kingdom tax treaty contains such a provision in paragraph 2 of Article 27.

Limitation on benefits

Limitation on benefits provisions prevent the unintended use of treaties by residents of a third country. Tax treaty benefits will be refused if any applicable limitation on benefits provision is not satisfied.

For example, Article XXIX-A of the Canada-U.S. tax treaty generally restricts full treaty benefits to "qualifying persons" as defined in that article. U.S. resident individuals are "qualifying persons." Corporations, trusts, and other organizations resident in the United States should consult the tax treaty article to find out if they meet the criteria. The document "CRA guidelines for taxpayers requesting treaty benefits pursuant to paragraph 6 of article XXIX A of the Canada-U.S. Tax Convention" at cra.gc.ca/tx/nnrstdnts/rctcl29-eng.html, provides the Canada-U.S. tax treaty in Appendix II and information for those who do not meet the criteria.

Certification and undertaking

This area should be completed and signed by:

- the non-resident taxpayer in the case of an individual;
- an authorized officer in the case of a corporation;
- the trustee, executor, or administrator if the person filing the form is a trust;
- an authorized partner in the case of a partnership.

A non-resident who does not satisfy the requirements of the limitation on benefits provisions, if any, contained in the tax treaty will not be entitled to all the benefits of the tax treaty. By signing this form you are certifying that the non-resident is entitled to a reduced rate of tax under a tax treaty.

During an audit or review, or while processing a related request, the CRA may ask you for more information to support the tax treaty benefit you claimed.

Change in circumstances

If a change in circumstances makes any information on the form incorrect, notify the payer immediately and fill out a new form.

Amounts derived through hybrid entities

A hybrid entity is in general a foreign entity (other than a partnership) whose income is taxed at the beneficiary, member, or participant level. For example, the United States resident members/owners of a Limited Liability Company (that is treated as a fiscally transparent entity under U.S. tax laws) may be entitled to treaty benefits if all the conditions in paragraph 6 of Article IV of the Canada-U.S. treaty are met. Under paragraph 6, an amount of income, profit or gain is considered to be derived by a resident of the United States if;

- 1) the amount is derived by that person through an entity (other than an entity that is a resident of Canada), and
- 2) by reason of that entity being considered fiscally transparent under U.S. tax laws, the treatment of the amount under U.S. tax laws is the same as it would be if that amount had been derived directly by that person. Paragraph 7 of Article IV contains additional restrictions on this look-through provision.

Entities that are subject to tax, but whose tax may be relieved under an integrated system, are not considered hybrid entities.

Where do I send this form?

Depending on your circumstances, send this form to one of the three areas noted below.

- If you receive income subject to Part XIII tax from a Canadian payer, or from an agent, nominee, or other financial intermediary who requested that you complete this form, send this form and your completed worksheets directly to the person who requested it, to reduce the Part XIII withholding tax on income being paid to you.
- If you derive income through a partnership or hybrid entity, and that partnership or hybrid entity asked you to complete Form NR301, send it to that partnership or hybrid entity.
- If requesting a certificate of compliance for the disposition of treaty-protected property, send this form, along with forms T2062 or T2062A, to the CRA according to the instructions on those forms.

Agents and nominees, or financial intermediaries

If you are an agent or nominee providing financial intermediary services as a part of a business, you should collect Form NR301, NR302, or NR303, or equivalent information, from the beneficial owner. See the instructions in Information Circular 76-12, Applicable rate of part XIII tax on amounts paid or credited to persons in countries with which Canada has a tax convention, and published updates to this information on the CRA website, for the suggested format to use for submitting the information to the Canadian payer or withholding agent. If you are an agent or nominee providing financial intermediary services as part of a business and you pay another agent or nominee amounts for non-resident beneficial owners, collect an agent/nominee certification from them as described in Information Circular 76-12 and published updates.

Instructions for payers

To determine the appropriate reduced rate of withholding, see the relevant Canadian tax treaty on the Department of Finance website at fin.gc.ca/treaties-conventions/treatystatus\_-eng.asp, or try the non-resident tax calculator at cra.gc.ca/partxiii-calculator/.

Do not apply a reduced rate of withholding in the following circumstances:

- the non-resident taxpayer has not provided Form NR301 or equivalent information and you are not sure if the reduced rate applies;
- the form is incomplete (see note below);
- a tax treaty is not in effect with the taxpayer's country of residence; or
- you have reason to believe that the information provided in this declaration is incorrect or misleading.

Note: The foreign and Canadian tax number fields may be blank because not all non-residents will have these tax numbers.

Expiry date

For Part XIII tax withholding purposes, this declaration expires when there is a change in the taxpayer's eligibility for the declared treaty benefits or three years from the end of the calendar year in which the form is signed and dated, whichever is earlier. For example, if the taxpayer's mailing address has changed to a different country, you should ask the taxpayer for a revised Form NR301.

If you need more information, see Part XIII withholding tax at cra.gc.ca/tx/nrdsnts/pyr/prtxiii/wthldng/menu-eng.html and select Beneficial ownership or Rates for part XIII tax.
